

Faculty Pre-Offer Scholarship Form

- Faculties are entitled to pre-offer up to 20% of the faculty's provisional (70%) allocation. Faculties are entitled to pre-offer one tuition scholarship (ie MIPRS). One (1) scholarship may be pre-offered by those faculties with a provisional (70%) allocation of less than five awards.
- Pre-offers will be available to new commencing applicants only. Applicants must have submitted a scholarship application before a pre-offer can be considered.
- Pre-offer will not be made after Friday 6 November 2009.
- Successful pre-offer applicants can commence their scholarship/s at time of enrolment rather than waiting until after 1 January (end of year round) and 1 August (mid-year round). RGSC will assess the nominees for a pre-offer and make the final decision on whether a pre-offer will be made.
- The names of applicants to whom a pre-offer have already been made must be inserted at the appropriate point in the final faculty Order of Merit List submitted to the Monash Research Graduate School. The date of pre-offer made should be clearly noted in the 'Remarks' column.
